

JENNY RIZZO Musical Theatre

Originally from New York City, Jenny (she/they) is a multifaceted performer and theatre educator. She has a B.F.A. in Music Theater from The Hartt School (University of Hartford), studied Classical Voice and Musical Theatre Development at the Manhattan School of Music, and has been teaching the performing arts since 2008.

When not teaching she works as a vocalist, dancer, actor, harpist, and director in Montreal and along the U.S. East Coast. Jenny is the music director of the Montreal Children's Theatre, choreographer for the Royal West Academy productions, music director, choreographer, and director at The Segal Center Academy, has their own private music studio, and is thrilled to be joining the Danse123 family this year! Some credits include: Rhonda, Fancy Nancy!

The Musical (Cote St Luc Dramatic Society), Carla, NINE (New York Summer Voice Festival) Napoleonic Apparition, A Christmas Carol (Hartford Stage, dir. Darko Trensjak).
