

EMILIE JOSSET

Musical Theatre Instructor

Émilie Josset's true passion is to tell stories. Whether with the heart of the actress or the voice of the singer. She spent her early childhood in France where she was trained in singing, dance and theater, but it is in Montreal, which she took up residence seventeen years ago while regularly attending her musical training in New York.

With her university studies in English and in letters, Emilie works on Anglophone productions than francophones. Her artistic journey brings together several musicals or plays including Chicago, Cabaret, A Violin on the Roof, Nine, Sweet Charity, Lessons of Maria Callas, The Fourberies of Scapin, The King's Wife to name but a few Just before becoming a mom in 2012, Emilie produced and co-produced, for the first time, three episodes of one Web-series "MTL" where she literally had the bite for the realization. Involved more and more in the current Kino, it prepares precisely realized the next Short film she has just written.