

LIISA SAARIO

Freelance Teacher / Choreographer

Liisa Saario first received her training in ballet, modern and jazz in her native Finland and then pursued her in Quebec at the Peter George dance school, at the Montreal Ballet-Jazz School, Dance school Eddy Toussaint. She has received a certificate in Teaching Jazz Simonson (New York) and has since taught in several schools in and around Montreal. She is regularly invited to teach at intensive courses throughout the province.

In addition to dancing with dance companies Professional musicians such as Rollo dance theater in Finland, Montreal Dance Theater and Mt. Laurel regional ballet in Philadelphia, Liisa has extensive experience as a professional choreographer and freelance dancer in television productions, shows and tours (numerous galas, variety shows And festivals) and also founded its own danSaario company. This semi-professional company performed on stage in Montreal and also participated in various dance festivals.

Liisa Saario has a professional training in massage therapy.